

Medtronic Reaches Settlement with United States Department of Justice

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 12, 2011--Medtronic, Inc. (NYSE: MDT) today announced that the Company has reached a settlement agreement with the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) regarding a previously disclosed industry-wide review of post-market clinical trials and device registries. Under this settlement, the Company will make a payment of $23.5 million to resolve the DOJ's investigation of four post-market studies. Medtronic makes no admission that any studies were improper or unlawful. Medtronic established a reserve for the full anticipated payment in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2011.

"Medtronic is happy to have this investigation behind us, so we can continue designing and executing clinical trials that generate evidence to improve patient care, outcomes, and cost effectiveness," said Marshall Stanton, M.D., vice president of clinical research and reimbursement for the Cardiac and Vascular Group at Medtronic.
